Dear Parents,

It's been a great week. One week down and one to go! We are optimistic we'll make it to Christmas Break! We'll take these little milestones one at a time. Thank you for taking necessary precautions.

Speaking of diseases, let keep "our" cherubs to avoid "Christmasitis" you know the disease where the kids "can't" work and stay on task. It tends to attack this time of year. We still have work that we need to complete. Thank you for your help with this awful, awful disease. Also, if anyone is able to bring in some paper towels? We are running low. We use them multiple times a day. Thank you soooooo much!

We are planning a little surprise. So, if the kids could dress in festive clothes next Wednesday? You know red or green shirts. If they have fun Christmas shirts fun Christmas hats? That would be so fun!

We are going to be making fun ornaments for your tree! So, make some room! We are hoping to have some fun next week. Hint, the school smells like a huge cinnamon roll!
