Darlene Zueger was born in Elbowoods, North Dakota on June 4, 1936, the daughter of Safford L. and Irene (Peterson) Beauchamp. She was an Arikara Elder in the MHA Nation. Growing up she attended grade school in Elbowoods and Garrison, graduating from Garrison Public High School. Darlene moved to Fargo, North Dakota in 1955 and worked for Manchester Company. On June 13, 1957, she became the bride of Emil E. Zueger in Moorhead, Minnesota. The couple resided in New England and were blessed with three children and three grandchildren. Darlene was a physically active woman who enjoyed traveling domestically and internationally. Summers at their cabin in Shadehill, SD was also a great joy of hers. She was a designer and seamstress for many years, also talented in painting and drawing. Community involvement was very much a part of who she was throughout her years in New England. Darlene was co-owner of New England Drug and in her later years she became a certified pharmacy technician. Darlene was involved in multiple community clubs and she taught Sunday school at Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church. Darlene is survived by her children, Lynn (Mike) Zueger Olson of Vail, CO; Terryl Zueger of Colorado Springs, CO; Jodi (Terry) Zueger Steiner of Colorado Springs, CO; three grandchildren, Courtney Olson of Denver, CO, Gavin Olson of Boulder, CO, Raven Steiner of Boulder, CO; brother, Kenneth Beauchamp of Beulah, ND. She was preceded in death by her husband, Emil E. Zueger; parents, Safford and Irene Beauchamp; sisters, Emagene and Patricia; brother, Safford Jr. Darlene's special gives were to Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church of New England, Saint Mary's Foundation of New England, New England Lions, Badlands Ministries, and Saint Jude's Foundation. If in your heart, please give.
