

*His Journey's Just Begun
By Ellen Brenneman*

*Don't think of him as gone away--
his journey's just begun
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.*

*Think how he must be wishing
that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost--
and he was loved so much.*

Jerald Lee Neugebauer was born on March, 25, 1950 to Harold and Pearl (Jendersee) Neugebauer in Parkston, South Dakota. He grew up and attended school in Parkston.

Jerald was lead singer in the Young Generation band. His band played at Dianne Munneke's high school where she became his number one fan. Later on February 7, 1969, Jerald and Dianne Munneke were married in New Holland, SD. Jerald was a passionate farmer and a dedicated welder and was known for his expertise in both.

He served 13 years in the Army National Guard. He enjoyed hunting, fishing golfing, bowling and more importantly hanging out with his friends and family. He was a jokester and story teller. He served on the Scotland City Council for several years and was a member of the American Legion.

Jerald will be missed by his loving wife Dianne Neugebauer, Scotland SD; three children, Michelle (Richard) Gielski, Rochester, Minn.; Michael (April) Neugebauer, Mitchell, SD; Mindy Neugebauer, Sioux Falls, SD; five grandchildren, Anthony, Kayce, Peighton, Aaron and Jaeden; one great-grandchild Carter; brothers and sisters, Dennis (Sherri) Neugebauer, Wayne (Rose) Neugebauer, Cheryl (Steve) Hohbach, Sandy Neugebauer, Shirley Neugebauer and Lincoln Neugebauer and Jerald's mother Pearl Neugebauer.

He was preceded in death by his father Harold and his father and mother-in-law Henry and Martha Munneke.
