Squash Australia is excited to announce the appointment of Stewart Boswell as its new National Coach.

Boswell, a four-time Australian Open winner and Commonwealth Games Silver and Bronze medalist, steps into the vacant role following the departure of Paul Price following the World Junior Championships.

Boswell brings invaluable national experience to the role and says he is looking forward to leading the future of squash in Australia.

"I am looking forward to taking on the role and support the player pathways from juniors in the States through to the National Senior teams at National events," Mr Boswell says.

"My aim is to help the younger generation of Australian players to develop to their full potential, achieve representative success for Australia and on the PSA World Tour," Mr Boswell says.

WORLD JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS | 2020

Squash Australia is extremely excited to host the 2020 World Junior Championships at the National Squash Centre in Carrara and Pacific Fair on the Gold Coast in July 2020.

FORMER WORLD NUMBER 2 ANNOUNCED AS NEW PERFORMANCE PATHWAY COACH

Squash Australia is excited to announce the appointment of Jenny Duncalf in a new-part time role as the Performance Pathway Coach to focus on developing Australia's leading juniors.

Jenny joins Squash Australia at an important time, with Australia preparing for a strong showing when it hosts the 2020 World Junior Championships on the Gold Coast.

A former World Number 2, Jenny is also a triple Commonwealth Games silver medallist and a gold and silver medal winner at the Women's World Team Championships.

Squash Australia Chief Executive Officer Richard Vaughan says that the appointment Duncalf is an important one for the National High Performance program.

“Jenny as a recently retired player has a lot to offer the game, in addition she has demonstrated exceptional passion for helping young players develop and has excellent doubles knowledge which helps strategically with our program,” Mr Vaughan says.
