PORT ANGELES SUNSET TIMES

Tonight ~ 8:38pm Next Friday ~ 8:26pm

Members & Visitors!

Measures to curb transmission has led to closures of non-essential venues and recommendations of social distancing.

In an abundance of caution to stop the spread, particularly to high-risk populations and persons with pre-existing vulnerabilities, the Washington Conference of Seventh-day Adventists has directed the closure of our churches until further notice.

In the interim, we have worked on live streaming and publishing a pre-recorded service for our congregation to watch on Sabbath.

Go online at portangelessda.org and click on the right top of the page and then click on “Live Stream”.

Also, last week's service can be viewed under the Video & Podcast tab.

Now that we have had an opportunity to learn the new technology, we would like to provide an additional point of contact for our church family. On Wednesdays at 6:30pm (normal prayer meeting time) we will host a Live Stream Prayer Meeting, which will include a short time of prayer.

As we go through a period of suspended church services, it is important for us to continue to remember the faithfulness of the Lord by returning our tithes and offerings. God is always faithful to His word and it is through giving that we express our love to Him and continue to move His work forward. Hebrews 10:23 NLT says:

“Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep His promise.”

Since we will not be meeting together as churches for a while, below are instructions as to how we can give electronically.

Go to portangelessda.org , click on top right of page, click on “Online Giving”, follow prompts, log in.

You may also write a check, fill out your tithe and offerings envelope and save it until the time we may congregate together again, or mail it to:

Another option would be to call one of the elders to pick up your tithe & offerings envelope and they will take it to our treasurer.

Psalm 20 (NKJV)

The Assurance of God's Saving Work
To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- 1 May the Lord answer you in the day of trouble;
 May the name of the God of Jacob defend you;
2 May He send you help from the sanctuary,
 And strengthen you out of Zion;
3 May He remember all your offerings,
 And accept your burnt sacrifice.
Selah
4 May He grant you according to your heart's desire,
 And fulfill all your purpose.
5 We will rejoice in your salvation,
 And in the name of our God we will set up our banners! May the Lord fulfill all your petitions.
6 Now I know that the Lord saves His anointed;
 He will answer him from His holy heaven
 With the saving strength of His right hand.
7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses;
 But we will remember the name of the Lord our God.
8 They have bowed down and fallen;
 But we have risen and stand upright.
9 Save, Lord!
 May the King answer us when we call.

High Time to Awake!

And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Romans 13:11, 12.

The great controversy is nearing its end. Every report of calamity by sea or land is a testimony to the fact that the end of all things is at hand. Wars and rumors of wars declare it. Is there a Christian whose pulse does not beat with quickened action as he anticipates the great events opening before us? The Lord is coming. We hear the footsteps of an approaching God.¹⁰²Our High Calling, 346. This knowledge of the nearness of Christ's coming should not be allowed to lose its force, and we become careless and inattentive, and fall into slumber—into an insensibility and indifference to realities. In slumber we are in an unreal world, and not sensible of the things which are taking place around us.... There are those who have the blazing light of truth shining all around them, and yet are insensible to it. They are enchanted by the enemy, held under a spell by his bewitching power. They are not preparing for that great day which is soon to come to our world. They seem utterly insensible to religious truth. Are there not some youth who are awake? Those who see that the night cometh, and also the morning, should work with untiring energy to arouse their sleeping associates. Can they not feel their peril, pray for them, and show them by their own life and character that they believe themselves that Christ is soon to come? ... The rapidly diminishing space of time between us and eternity should more deeply impress us. Every day that passes makes one less left us to complete our work of perfecting character.... As long as there are many asleep, many sporting away the precious hours in careless indifference, as it were, upon the very brink of the eternal world, those who do believe must be sober, must be awake, must be earnest and diligent, and watch unto prayer.... Have you, dear youth, your lamps trimmed and burning?¹⁰³Our High Calling, 346. ar. Mar. 220 (July 31)
