“We can’t fully appreciate joyful reunions later without tearful separations now. The only way to take sorrow out of death is to take love out of life... Our limited perspective would be enlarged if we could witness the reunion on the other side of the veil, when doors of death open to those returning home.”

President Russell M. Nelson

One of Heber's favorite poems

I knelt to pray when day was done and Prayed OH Lord Bless everyone,
Lift from each saddened heart the pain
And make the sick be well again
Then I arose another day
And carelessly went on my way
The whole day long I did not try
To wipe a tear from any eye
Then once again I knelt to pray
And as I prayed into my ear
There came a voice loud and clear,
Pause now my son before you pray
Who have you tried to bless today?
Gods sweetest blessings always go
To hands that serve him here below
And then I raised my head and cried
Forgive me Lord I have not tried
But let me live another day
And I will live the way I pray
