Obituary

Roberta Rodgers lovingly called “RORO” was born on December 31st, 1958, in Los Angeles, California. She was born to the proud parents of Birdell Adams and John Roger, both preceded her in death. As a child, Roberta was extremely energetic and active. She enjoyed spending time with her siblings, playing sports, and tussling with her brothers.

Roberta graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School. She participated as a team mascot for Jefferson Cheer Team and met many lifelong friends that are considered family today. Shortly after high school, Roberta became a mother to a set of beautiful twins, Keisha and Keshon. Roberta took pride in being their mother, whenever you saw her, you would see her with either her children and/or bonus children.

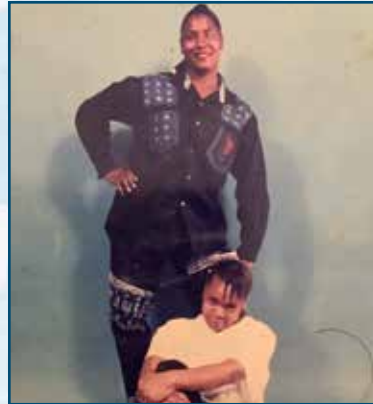

Roberta was known for being a happy carefree spirit but anyone that met her, can testify to the warm bright light that you felt because of her presence. She also loved partying with family and friends; dancing and encouraging everyone else to dance. Her loving spirit was testament to her upbringing.

Roberta was raised in a Christian household and understood the importance of having a relationship with Christ, at a young age. At the age of twenty-eight, she was rebaptized at Rock of Ages Missionary Baptist Church, and accepted it as her church home. As a matriarch she raised her children and grandchildren in the church. Roberta made it her mission to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ, she took every opportunity to share the good news with anyone in her sphere of influence. She made sure all the kids attended Sunday school. Everyone knew if you spent a Saturday night at RORO's house, you were going to church the next day.

Roberta's true calling was a caregiver. She dedicated her life to caring for her mother, Birdell, in her latter years when she fell ill. She made sure her mother continued to do everything she loved to do, like weekly trips to downtown LA, getting her hair and nails done, and most importantly cooking. After her mother's passing, she took pride in being a full-time grandmother for her grandchildren and cared for her sick aunt. Even at the end of her own life, Roberta was still extremely active in her children and grandchildren's lives.

On the evening of June 5th, 2022, God saw that His faithful servant was tired, and sent for her. Roberta went from Labor to Reward. Waiting at Heaven's gate were her parents, her brother, Harald Rodger, her Life Partner, Felton Jones, and her nephew Marquise Coleman. Roberta leaves to cherish her memories, her twins Keisha and Keshon, her eight grandchildren, Paris, India, & London Thomas, Cheyanne, Kyyera, Rayshon, Kyon & Kanaan Robinson, her siblings, Bernice Price, Bobby Singleton Geraldine Coleman, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

To my bestfriend Roberta with love. We have always been together in good times and bad times. Today you may be leaving this earth without me, but someday I will meet you there. May God reward you with a peaceful after life! You are too well loved to ever be forgotten. Rest in peace

Your Best Friend Pat

Dear Friend

What I would not give to spend more time with you, How many days did I let pass without holding you close, I realize now the one thing I do know is, I will be with you again. But next time I won't waste a moment, a moment to tell you how much I admire your strength, and how you are the voice of the song. Thank you my friend, for letting me be me, having my back no matter what others think, you are a swan in this pond I call my life, you held me close when my mother died, God knows I miss you everyday. But I know you & you dont miss this place, your watching over me shaking your head saying "girl quit crying we will be together again" see you soon Ro

Your Friend Andrea

Dear mama,

Words could never express how much I love you. Thank you for being the best mom I could ever ask for. I miss you so much and It's hard for me to accept that you are gone you taught us to be strong so i will do that. I will never forget anything you taught me or the love you gave. Until we meet again.

Your Son

Dear Granny,

You may not have been my blood but nothing could change what you are to me. From a little girl I've always felt welcomed, never singled out, nor turned away. You made me feel included like one of your own. All though your time was cut entirely too short I know we will see each other again in another lifetime. Until then we will talk about you still, think about you everyday, you will remain in our hearts, & tied to our souls. Love you always

Tributes

Hey Granny,

Honestly speaking I have a lost for words, I just never really prepared for you to not be here with me. I constantly replay all the memories we shared in my head. I have thought about memories I didnt even know I could still remember. Like when you would ride me on your bike everywher,e and when we would go downtown. Your were always so honest with me, you were one of my first friends. I wish we could just go back in time to us laying together watching your stories. I feel so sad and lost that you arent here but you taught us to be strong. I remember when Papa died you explained to me that people leave and you were so strong for us, now I'll be stong for you & everyone. I love you so much. Until you meet again my love.

Your First Grandbaby

Sometimes you would call me in the middle of the night just to say you love me. I love & miss you. I know you were a beleiver because your saying wad "god is in control"

Your Rolldog Trina

Dear Sister,

To my sister if I could have only one more day to spend with you, I would tell you again how much I love you, and how I know that you are in a better place. I hope that you're happy and at peace. It hard for me to believe that your gone but Jesus called you to his side in heaven. Go ahead sis, rest in peace. Love always your sister Geraldine.

Dear Roro,

If roses grow in heaven, Lord please pick a bunch for me. Place them in my granny arms and tell her they're from me. Tell her that I love and miss her alot, and when it's her turn to smile, Place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while. Because remebering her is easy, I do it everyday. But theres an ache within my heart that will never go away
