

CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

How bless we are to have family and friends that appreciate the meaning of "family" and provide their genuine support for their loved ones. This homecoming could not have been possible without the loving kindness of our family and friends near and far. Thank you so much for your consideration and thoughtful prayers. With God we are never forgotten, with God we are never alone!!!

Thank God for all of you!!!
Selwyn, Adrienne, and Kyle

PALLBEARERS

ADAMS FUNERAL HOME

FLORAL ATTENDANTS

FAMILY & FRIENDS

SERVICES ENTRUSTED TO:

GWENDOLYN

M. Nurse

Sunrise: February 6 1938 | Sunset: November 7 2022

NOVEMBER 17, 2022 | 2:00 PM
ADAMS FUNERAL SERVICE
510 STEPHENSON AVE
SAVANNAH, GA 31405

Legacy of Life

*Let not your heart be troubled :
ye believe in God believe also in me*

Gwendolyn Merene Freeman Nurse was the oldest daughter and child of Rufus Alan Freeman and Gladys Merene Harding Freeman. She was born February 6, 1938 in Garysburg, NC. She departed this life on Nov 7 2022 at St. Joseph's Hospital, Savannah, Georgia.

Gwendolyn was born in Garysburg, North Carolina when at the age of three the family moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. During the summer months, her childhood years were spent in Welding, North Carolina with her parents, siblings, cousins, and aunts. Her formal education took place at West Philadelphia High School where she graduated from in January of 1956 . Upon graduation she held various clerical positions upon obtaining a permanent job with Snap On Tools in April of 1968. In 1973 Gwendolyn secured a position as a loan investigator with (PNB) Philadelphia National Bank. Ultimately retired after over 30 years in the banking industry.

During her retirement she worked with the local Good Will in helping obtain donations, as well as caring for her husband, grandchildren, and other family members.

Gwendolyn married in July of 1958 to Alfred C Nurse, were God blessed their reunion with three children. The family resided in west Philadelphia, Pennsylvania until 1974 when they moved to Sicklerville New Jersey. Gwendolyn enjoyed having all her family around for the holidays, cooking, sewing, and tending to her garden along side her mother. After a debilitating illness Gwendolyn and Alfred made their last family move to Savannah, Georgia where she resided until her death.

Memories will be forever with her three children Selwyn C Nurse, Kyle L Nurse (Michelle, dec), and Adrienne M Nurse. Gwendolyn also leaves behind her brother Rufus A Freeman (Sandra) of Sicklerville, NJ , and her sister Madeline Mathis of Atco, NJ, as well as a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and close family friends.

Order of Service

The Processional The Family

PRAYER OF INVOCATION

Rev Michael C Cooper

Musical Selection

SCRIPTURE READING

Rev Renee Thomas

Psalms 16: 8-11

PRAYER OF COMFORT

Rev Renee Thomas

READING OF OBITUARY/ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Sandra Freeman

Musical Selection

THE EULOGY

Rev Michael C Cooper

Benediction

