A time to be born, A time to fly away...

A child is born unto his parents molded
 With a spirit sent from above:
 With a message that says: this is my gift to you,
 To nourish, and to love.

Teach him to keep my commandments and guide him in the righteous way.
 But you must always remember that I must come back to reclaim him one day.

The child grows up, gets an education, and gets married to his choice of mate.
 The couple experience many trials as they raise their children to be obedient, and not to hate.

The creator comes back at the least unexpected hour to reclaim the child and to take him away.

The parents say: Heavenly Father, we knew you were coming back, but, oh how we wish it were a later day.

The spouse says: You were the other half that made me complete.
 Sometimes I even took it for granted that you would be mine for keeps.
 The children say: We shall never find anyone to take your precious place.
 We will miss you dearly and it's going to be so hard not being able to see your face.

The friends say: We wish you could have stayed longer, but God knows best:
 May you go where the chilly winds don't blow to get your eternal rest.

The deceased child says to all: I'm not dead! My body was tired and worn, so I spread my wings, and I flew away. Let my spirit continue to live on in you and I will meet you all on the other side one sweet day.

MICHAEL NARALDO BROOKS

Michael Naraldo Brooks, aged 44, was a beloved native of Warner Robins. He passed away at Houston Medical Center on the evening of Sunday, January 14, 2024.

Known for his warm and friendly demeanor, Michael, also known as “Cookie Head,” never met a stranger. His outlandish personality, sense of humor, and stunts enriched the lives of those around him. His laughter became a constant source of joy.

Despite his jokes, Michael remained a humble soul, treasuring the bonds he shared with his family. His greatest source of pride and joy were his three daughters, Makayla, Lexi, and Bella. In addition to his role as a loving husband and father, Michael embraced the responsibilities of being a fantastic uncle to his nieces and nephews. He constantly showered his loved ones with warmth and affection.

Michael also had a profound passion for football, finding bliss in cheering for teams such as the Florida Gators, Redskins, FAMU, and the HoCo Bears. As a grill master, he delighted friends and family with his culinary talents, creating lasting memories through shared meals. Michael also served as an usher for Jerusalem Baptist Church and was a Mason. Professionally, he demonstrated his skills at Brooks Privacy Fencing and was a dedicated truck driver for Pet Dairy.

Michael was preceded in death by his sister, Sophia Robinson.

His memory will forever be treasured by his wife of 17 years, Andrea Pyron Brooks of Byron; children, Makayla, Lexi, and Bella Brooks, all of Byron; parents, Michael Brooks (Jackie) of Monroe, and Barbara Johnson (Roy) of Warner Robins; siblings, Amber Goolsby (Edward) of Byron, Tracie Huff of Warner Robins, Anthony Burks of Virginia, Markell Brooks of Texas, Alex Robinson (Kayla), Angel Hodges, and Rekeisha Robinson, all of Warner Robins, Nichole Robinson Maryland of Washington D.C., and Angelica Robinson of Atlanta; grandmother, Julia Mae Jackson; step-brother, Terrell Johnson (Ann) of Florida; stepsister, Audrell Johnson of Warner Robins; mother-in-law, Lottie Pyron Melton (Keith); brothers-in-law, Bobby Pyron, and Nick Pyron (Kimberly) all of Hampton; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends.
