Larry Maag age 69 of Tripp, SD passed away Tuesday, April 7, 2020 at St Benedict Health Center in Parkston under hospice care. Those who spent time in Larry's company will forever cherish his selfless dedication, smile, laugh and cheerful and positive personality.

Larry is survived by his beloved daughter and special friend, Sarah Maag and Troy Keller and grandpuppies, Hank and Torrie, Sioux Falls, SD. He is also survived by sister MJ Knobe and husband Carlton Hupke, Sioux Falls, SD and brother Dan Maag and wife Lori, Lakewood, CO. Larry treasured those special moments with his nieces and nephews: Jennifer Jensen and daughter McKenzie, Tucson, AZ, nephew Cole Maag, Littleton, CO, nephew Nick Maag and wife Alex and son Oliver, Highlands Ranch, CO and nephew Matthew Maag, Lakewood, CO. Larry was loved by many neighbors and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents Victor and Ruby (Ehresmann) Maag and brother Bob Maag.

Larry was born Thursday, May 4, 1950 in Parkston, SD. He was the second of four children. He is a baptized and confirmed member of Emmaus Lutheran Church. He spent his early childhood on the family farm in Tripp, SD.

Larry graduated from Tripp High School in 1968. It was during high school that he earned the nickname "Shorty." After high school, Larry attended Southern State College and served in the South Dakota National Guard. Larry found his passion for show cattle through the 4-H program. This began his life's work of breeding show cattle and his passion for educating young people. His work was known by many breeders across the United States. Later in life, Larry returned and continued farming on the family farm south of Tripp.

In lieu of flowers, memorial funds will be set aside to support young people with an interest in show cattle. Remembrances may be sent for the Larry Maag (Sarah Maag) Memorial Fund to BankWest 214 S Main St. Tripp, SD 57376.
