I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path god laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, To laugh
To love to work and play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close day.
If my parting has left a void.
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good time, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift Up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, he set me free.

HER Story

Asia Nienda Taylor was born here in Philadelphia to Clarice Taylor and William Hiller on January 22, 1967. She was affectionately known as "Dimples" "Dark and lovely" or "A".

She was a Germantown High School graduate. She worked at the post office for several years and made many friends on her journey. Her primary job was to take care of her twin siblings, Terry & Carrey. Growing up, Asia was very protective of her siblings as she understood her role as the big sister.

Asia enjoyed cooking and teaching others how to cook. She loved to cook for all friends and family. Her favorite holidays to cook on was July 4th and Thanksgiving. Every year she threw a huge BBQ to celebrate with all her loves ones. Seeing her family happy was one of her love languages.

She was more than happy to be the central figure in the lives of her children. Anyone who knew her, knew that she was a star in their eyes, and that's all that ever mattered to her.

Asia was a shining example of resilience and determination. Despite facing life's challenges alone, she always put her children first, ensuring they had everything they needed to thrive. Her unconditional love and sacrifices will forever be cherished by her family and all who knew her.

Asia Nienda Taylor passed away Friday, June 28, 2024. She is preceded in death by her mother Clarice, her brother, Rodney, and her nephews, Rodney and Michael. She is survived by her two children, Terrell and India; her seven brothers and her sister, nieces & nephews and many friends of the family.

There are no words for moments such as this when the unexpected happens. We can all take a step back to reflect on life the precious, short, and fragile life we all have. In a instant things can be changed. Life is about living, loving, and ultimately letting go. However, the memories and the laughter live on forever in our hearts. May you have the privilege of tomorrow and the wherewithal to be grateful and appreciative for another day.
