Pastor's Note

LUKWARM: LESS THAN EXPONENTIAL

by Ramon V. Baldovino

This year this bulletin space will be filled with materials drawn from a book written by Elmer Towns, Dean Emeritus of the School of Religion and Theological Seminary at Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA. It is entitled "I Am Jesus: Let's Change the World."

"Write this letter to...the church in Laodicea...I know all the things you do, that you are neither hot nor cold. I wish that you were one or the other! But since you are like lukewarm water, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of My mouth!" (Rev. 3:14-16 NLT)

I am the church of all types of believers—some who have grown in their faith, others who are carnal, even babies in Christ (1 Cor. 3:1). Therefore, not all churches have a strong exponential outreach. Letters were written to the 7 churches (Rev. 2-3). One left its first love of evangelism (Rev. 2:5), another was ignorant of doctrine and fell into error (Rev.2:18-20). There were other problems, so I challenged them, "repent and do the first works" (Rev. 2:5 NKJV). Actually the spirituality of churches is a reflection of the spirituality of its members. How spiritual is your church or its members? What must you do personally to have revival and become My exceptional followers?

I indwell all believers, but not everyone is a shining testimony to the gospel light. Some have not tried to grow in their faith; others have given into temptation and sinned against Me. Sin blinds their spiritual eyes so they don't know what they do, nor do they know how blind they are to Me.

KEY THOUGHT: I want every follower to be an exceptional Christian, but they are not. I want every church to be an exponential church, but it isn't.

Personal Prayer: Lord, sometimes I am blind to sin in my life (ignorant sin). Open my eyes to see anything that is holding me back. My problem is, I don't yield enough to You and I don't pursue godliness. Make me an exceptional follower so that my church will express exceptional evangelism and growth.
