

Gone Fishing

I've finished life's chores assigned to me,
So put me on a boat headed out to sea.
Please send along my fishing pole
For I've been invited to the fishin' hole.
Where every day is a day to fish,
To fill your heart with every wish.
Don't worry, or feel sad for me,
I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.
We will miss each other for awhile,
But you will come and bring your smile.
That won't be long you will see,
Til we're together you and me.
To all of those that think of me,
Be happy as I go out to sea.
If others wonder why I'm missin'
Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'

Remembering His Life

Jake Clark graduated in 2005 from Council Bluff, Iowa. He was a loving father, son, brother, and uncle. Jake loved spending time fishing and being with his family. He enjoyed the water and camping; the 4th of July and Thanksgiving were his two favorite holidays. He made sure his camp fires was at least six feet tall and he had the biggest fireworks to blow-up. Jake was a kid at heart and made sure that on 4th of July he had dynamite! If you knew Jake, you know he walked with swag each and every day. Flashing his black hoodie, gold chain, and new sneakers. Jake would always ask, "Do you like my cut?" As he would lightly touch the side of his head to his beard. Jake would always reply "Thats all me" because he was his own barber.

Another thing Jake loved was eating. Jake loved corn beef & cabbage, mexican, and asian foods. He would eat almost anything. You name it, he would eat it. Jake also loved grilling and making seafood meals. To him having a bowl of shrimp cocktail at 8am was normal. Jake has three handsome boys and a beautiful daughter. He loves his children dearly even with the distance. When Jake was with us all he showed so much love. Jake was a charismatic and a caring man, that offered his help without you asking. To our father, son, brother, uncle and friend who loved us very much, we will truly miss you.

Jake is survived by mother Kathleen Clark; father Fransisco Torres (Omaha, NE); siblings Ivy Cruz, Santiago Torres, Aurora Barragan, Angel Torres, and Olgalinda Jimenez; children Alexander Clark, Brayden Clark, Vincent Clark, and Isabella Clark; Nephews; Christian Barragan, Aurora Longino, LunaEmery Longino, Aliana Torres, Santiago Torres Jr., Giovanni Torres, Gabriella Torres, Elijah Torres, Jayleen Vasquez, and Camilo Vazquez; and a multitude of friends, family and extended family.
