My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in. Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win; Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best; Just say I tried to do what's right, To give the most I could, not do less; I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due; Please don't give flowers, or talk in hushed tones; Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God, I've made it home; Don't talk about what could have been, it is over and its done, Just see to all my family's needs, the battle has been won.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Celebration of Life

Ms. Eva Mae Williams was born on December 13, 1929, in Sylvania, Georgia. She entered into eternal rest on January 7, 2024, at her residence. Eva lived in Springfield, Georgia for many years before making Savannah, Georgia her home.

Eva was a member of New Generation Full Gospel Baptist Church.

She was a faithful member until her health declined. She represented love, compassion, and joy throughout her life. Her words of inspiration were a constant source of kindness, uplifting those around her and instilling a positive sense of self-worth.

Eva was preceded in death by her two daughters, Bertha Williams Knowles and Luvetria (Willie) Williams Perry, son Harold (Harriett) Johnson, grandson Randy Williams, and great-grandson Randy Williams Jr.

She is survived by her devoted and loving son: Ulysees (Betty) Williams; grandchildren, Ulysees Williams Jr, Trijuanna Edwards, Terry Smith, T. Hope Johnson, Derrick Knowles, Kimberly Knowles, Tyrone Williams, Christopher Williams, Emel Williams, Willie L. Smith, Danny Perry, Marcell Perry, Courtland Perry, Rashitha Perry, BJ Johnson, Tierrah Johnson, Shalynda (Robert) Joseph, Felicia (Timothy) James, Paul (Margaret) Simmons, Audrey Simmons; and a host of great grands, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever cherish the legacy of her love and unwavering devotion.
