For Today

What is Our Greatest Debt?

One of the most puzzling texts in the Bible, from an Adventist perspective, is the passage in Matthew 25, where Jesus is pronouncing judgment on the sheep and the goats. "Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me'" (Matt. 25:34-36, NIV).

Notice what is absent. The saved people, the remnant, are praised for what? There is no mention of how many Bible studies given, how many people baptized. No one is commended for faithfulness in giving tithes and offerings. Church attendance is absent. There is nothing about keeping the Sabbath. In fact, there is nothing there that we cherish as Adventists concerning what makes us so special.

Jesus is telling us that the right relationship with God will result in the right relationship with others. And when we have the right relationship with others then we will want to help, support, and encourage, the most disadvantaged in society.

Paul describes the kind of people living in the last days. "And do this, understanding the present time. The hour has come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. The night is nearly over; the day is almost here." (Rom. 13:11-12, NIV). This is an end-time text. The second coming is very close, says Paul. In fact, the whole New Testament lived in the expectation of Jesus returning in their day.

Notice that he begins this passage with these words, "And do this." What is "this"? He tells us in the verses just before. "Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for he who loves his fellowman has fulfilled the law. The commandments, 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not murder,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not covet,' and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this one rule: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' Love does no harm to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law" (verses 8-10, NIV).

What is our greatest debt? To love one another. Love is the fulfillment of the law.

Happy Sabbath!

Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you.
On him God
the Father has placed his seal
of approval.

John 6:27

... as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

2 Peter 1:3-4 (NKJV)

Welcome

We are glad that you came to worship Jesus with us today! Our prayer is that through Bible study, prayer, and song, you will experience God's presence and blessing. Please stay and fellowship with us at the potluck meal following church service. Everyone is invited!

Announcements

Upcoming: November 16, Pastor Denny Evans
