

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 KJV

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Obituary

Mark Wilson, 64 of Savannah, GA, made his transition, suddenly, from earth to his heavenly home on October 27th, 2023.

Mark was born on July 1, 1959 in Savannah, GA to the late Anna L. Wilkerson and Charles Wilson.

He was one of 4 children and was educated in the Savannah School System. After graduating, Mark made the decision to serve his country. He enlisted in the United States Army in July of 1980 traveling the world providing dedicated service until April of 1984.

During his retirement years, Mark enjoyed fishing and family fun. As a true Georgia Bulldog fan, Mark could be found enjoying college football on Saturdays.

Mark is preceded in death by his parents, Anna L. Wilkerson and Charles Wilson; and his sister, Mary Boles.

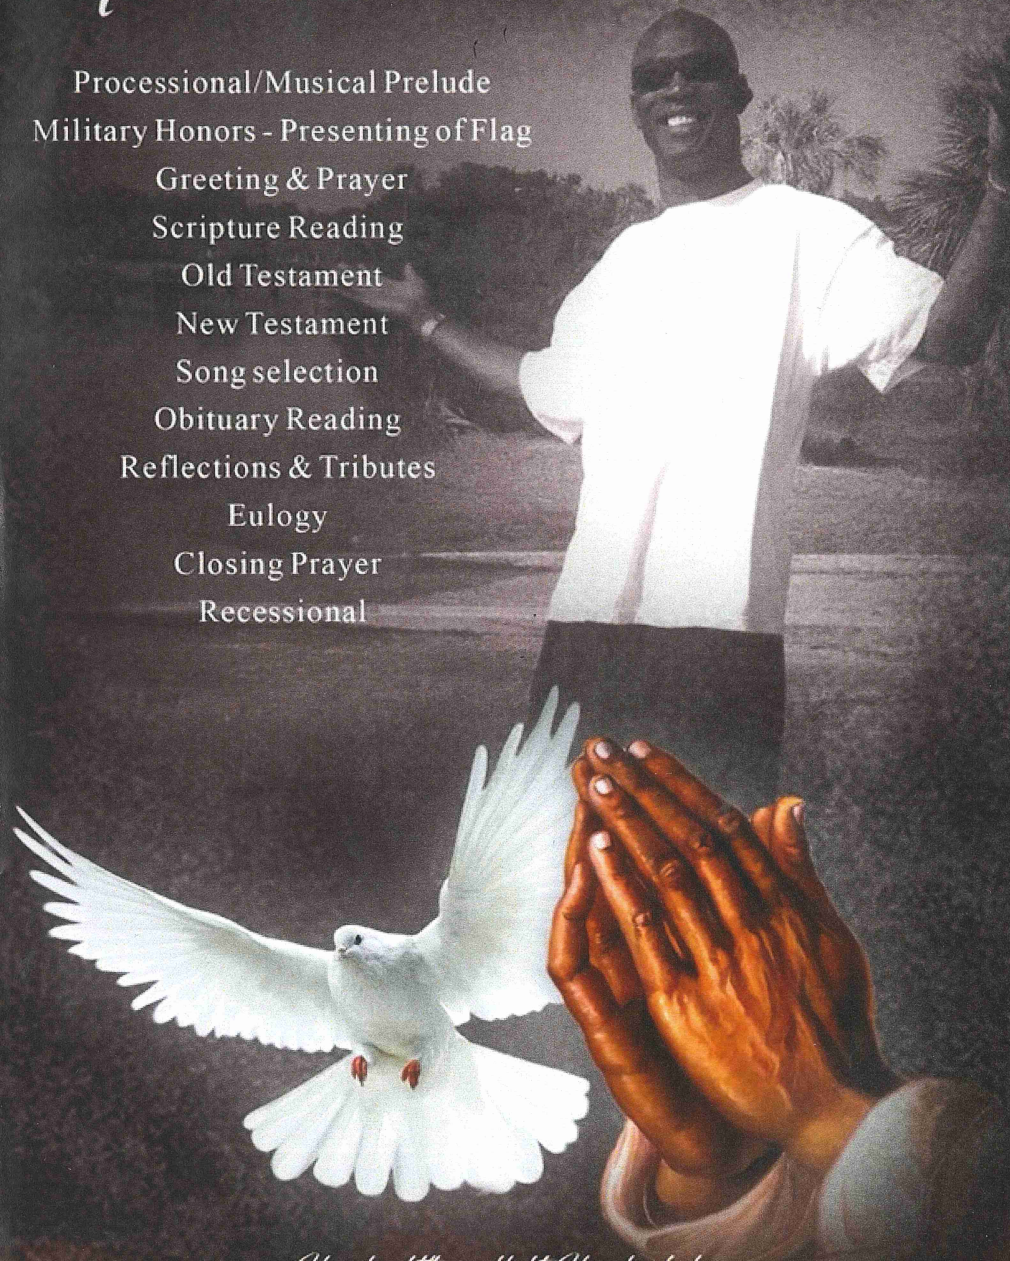

Mark is survived by his children, Javares Taylor (Savannah, Georgia) and Marcus Wilson (Atlanta, Georgia); his grandchildren, Javares Taylor, Jr, Jabrae Taylor, Javaya Taylor, Marcus Wilson, Jr., and Zaylen Hardly; his siblings, Dennis Pinkney and Eddie Wilson; his nieces and nephews, Anthony Martin, David Wilson, Demetrius Boles, Anastasia Boles, Cheyenne Wilson, and Kionna Bell; and a host of family, friends, and loved ones.
